A 20x20 grid of symbols forming a square frame. The symbols include triangles (pointing up and down), circles, and crosses. Inside the frame, the text "PLAYMODEPL" is repeated in a pattern. The text "PLAYMODEPL" is repeated in a pattern. The text "PLAYMODEPL" is repeated in a pattern.

The diagram is a complex grid-based structure. It features a central area with a grid of symbols: triangles pointing up and down, circles, and crosses. The text 'PLAYMODE' is repeated in a grid pattern at the top and bottom. The letters 'E', 'L', 'M', and 'O' are also present in a grid. The letters 'D', 'M', and 'E' are placed vertically on the right side. The overall layout is symmetrical and intricate, resembling a game board or a data visualization.
